IT IS $67,500.

That is the Amount of the Award of Damages Yesterday

GIVEN AGAINST THE TERMINAL

Company in Favor of the Wheeling Iron and Steel Company for Right of Way Upon Its Property in Lower Benwood in the Construction of the Extension. Details of an Interesting Case—The Iron and Steel Company Claimed $250,000.

The commissioners appointed by the Marshall county circuit court to make the award in the condemnation suit of the Wheeling Bridge & Terminal Railway Company against the Wheeling Iron & Steel Company, have made their report. The award fixes the amount of compensation for land and abutting property belonging to the iron and steel company on the line of the proposed terminal extension at $67,500. The company claimed $250,000. The commission consisted of David Alexander, D. A. Dorsey, Thomas Scott, W. W. Smith and S. W. Dick, all of Marshall county, and the award is signed by the five, showing that their conclusions were unanimous. The attorneys for the Bridge & Terminal company were V. B. Archer, of Parkersburg, and S. G. Smith, of this city. The attorneys for the iron and steel company were Caldwell & Caldwell, of Wheeling.

This case has been watched with considerable interest since its beginning and the result of the deliberations of the board of awards has been variously received and commented upon. When the Bridge & Terminal company decided to extend its tracks south past the iron and steel plant from Ninth street in Benwood, to which point they have been built, it desired the right of way from the iron and steel company, which owns all the land and rights between the works and the river.

The company claimed that should the tracks extend over its land between the works and the Peewick tracks, which are already built on trestles past the works, they would seriously interfere with the facilities which the iron and steel company had reserved for itself. It would be to a great loss and expense in the matter of providing a new means of pumping 2,000,000 of gallons of water used at the works daily. This and other objections to granting the right of way, such as infringement on the mill property, &c., were urged, the iron and steel company claiming that all things considered it would be damaged to the extent of not less than $250,000.

On the other hand, the Terminal people urged that were they compelled to run their tracks upon trestles outside of the Peewick trestles they would overlap the harbor line as filled by the United States government, which, they claimed, the government would hardly consent for them to do. They accordingly claimed the right to bring condemnation proceedings and ask an award of damages to the right of way they desired. The petition was granted by the circuit court for Marshall county, and the commissioners of award appointed, with result above noted. It is not known what further action will be taken by either party.

TWO SHOWS TO-DAY.

The Rain Prevented Last Night's Performance of "The Battles of Our Nation," but the Tickets will be Good for To-day.

Thousands of people were disappointed on account of not being able to see "The Battles of Our Nation," which was booked to appear at Mozart park, but the heavy rain during the afternoon and evening made it impossible for the large army of workmen to get up the immense amount of scenery and effects in time for the night show. Even with the rain pouring down several hundred people went down on the street cars and when told at the incline that the performance had been postponed, over two-thirds of them went up on the hill top to see the large stage that has been erected and the seats as they are arranged for what will undoubtedly be the finest outdoor performance ever given in Wheeling.

Those who saw the stage as it is arranged and the immense seating capacity, were well paid for their visit. The stage is the largest ever erected in this city and there are chairs elevated with a seating capacity of nearly 3,000. The electric and calcium lights were in position and last night lighted the ground where the workmen were engaged in fixing up the scenery, putting up the tents, arranging the cannon and completing the details for to-day's two shows.

The tickets sold in advance for last night will be good for either this afternoon or evening, and as the crowds at both promise to be tremendous, every person who can, should go to the park early and avoid the rush. Those who attend the matinee performance can stay over and see the evening performance with its immense light effects, if they so desire. Both shows will be given in their entirety and not the slightest detail will be omitted from the matinee performance.

The big show arrived over the Baltimore & Ohio at 11 o'clock yesterday morning and the two car loads of scenery and effects were taken to the Caldwell run switch, where it was unloaded and taken by wagon to the park. Manager Wright, of the electric line, will have all his cars on during the day and cars will run to the park every two minutes. The crowds at to-day's two performances will no doubt be very large.

THE HUB CLOTHIERS AND FURNISHERS.

Why Should You....

Pay fancy prices to the custom tailor when you can get the same values from us for about one-half as much, and our garments are just as stylish and will fit as well or better than theirs? The proof of this statement is the fact we are getting new customers every day who have heretofore patronized the make-to-measure shops.

Stop in whenever it is most convenient for you and let us show what ARTISTIC READY-TO-WEAR CLOTHING really is. The only difference between OURS and the best custom garments is that you were not specially measured for them and the little FIFTY PER CENT less price. Isn't that worth saving? Other people think so.

A Customer.....

Asked us if we made a profit on those $10 98 Suits of ours. We told him yes. We will never try to make you believe we are in business for fun. True, we make a very small margin on these $10 98 Suits, because they are finer trimmed and much better made than you will usually find in suits at almost double the price. Their beauty would give a custom tailor a conniption fit and drive him into some other business. They won't come to see them, hence there always will be tailors for those men who won't investigate either. Funny world! MONEY BACK WHEN YOU PREFER IT.
